

CANTAX HOUSE, LACOCK GARDEN VISIT

A rare opportunity to see a fabulous garden created by Deborah van der Beek and her husband who are tenants of Cantax House in Lacock, owned by the National Trust. The garden has been written about by magazines all over the world, from the Russian 'My Lovely Dacha' to cover story of Royal Horticultural Society's magazine 'The Garden' (Jan 2011) written by Stephen Lacey.

All funds to the Campaign to Protect Rural England Wiltshire – Protecting the Wiltshire Countryside

Saturday May the 19th at 14:30

Tickets £7.50 per person - to include tea and cake

By ticket only please apply to the email address and telephone number below

The Campaign to Protect Rural England - Wiltshire - 46, New Park Street, Devizes, SN10 1DT Telephone: 01380 722157

Email: admin@cprewiltshire.org.uk